WNBR-C 2007 RIDE GUIDELINES

- YOU MUST completely read this note and bring it with you along with your bike or skates for admission to the pre-ride gathering.
- ÅBSOLUTELY DO NOT arrive naked or be anywhere near the park naked.
- 3. ABSOLUTELY DO NOT carry open alcohol.
- 4. DO NOT leave litter in park or gathering location.
- Exposed genitals or female nipples may make you a target for arrest. Do so at your own risk, and not unfil ride is underway.
 Even naked butts may be risky. Remain minimally covered or body painted at all times.
- 6. Obey traffic laws such as signals, signs, and lanes.
- If confronted by police OBEY COMMANDS! COMPLY! DO NOT ESCALATE! DO NOT ARGUE. Say "Yes Officer". If told to put something on, simply do so immediately!
- This ride is monitored by National Lawyers Guild volunteers who can serve as witnesses in case of police engagement. In case of arrest immediately call the NLG office at 312-913-0039
- Remember the purpose of the ride: To Promote Freedom from oil dependency and promote positive body image. Not to antagonize residents and authorities.
- 10. For maximum First Amendment protection (freedom of speech and peaceable assembly), integrate nudity with your message. Some ACLU examples include: "this naked body burns calories not oil", "nude not lewd", "no concealed WnDs", "stripped of our rights", "naked is how vulnerable I feel sharing the roads with cars", ...
- No photographs allowed at gathering location except by preauthorized personnel.
- 12. To relieve overcrowding if you do not require body-paint please go from check-in to a nearby pub/diner such as Twisted Spoke (501 N Ogden), Cobra Lounge (235 N Ashland), Sip Coffee (1223 W Grand), etc., then join us at gathering immediately before departure BY 8:45pm.
- 13. For more information see http://worldnakedbikeride.org/chicago

WNBR-C 2007 RIDE GUIDELINES

- YOU MUST completely read this note and bring it with you along with your bike or skates for admission to the pre-ride gathering.
- ABSOLUTELY DO NOT arrive naked or be anywhere near the park naked.
- 3. ABSOLUTELY DO NOT carry open alcohol.
- 4. DO NOT leave litter in park or gathering location.
- Exposed genitals or female nipples may make you a target for arrest. Do so at your own risk, and not until ride is underway. Even naked butts may be risky. Remain minimally covered or body painted at all times.
- 6. Obey traffic laws such as signals, signs, and lanes.
- If confronted by police OBEY COMMANDS! COMPLY! DO NOT ESCALATE! DO NOT ARGUE. Say "Yes Officer". If told to put something on, simply do so immediately!
- This ride is monitored by National Lawyers Guild volunteers who can serve as witnesses in case of police engagement. In case of arrest immediately call the NLG office at 312-913-0039
- Remember the purpose of the ride: To Promote Freedom from oil dependency and promote positive body image. Not to antagonize residents and authorities.
- 10. For maximum First Amendment protection (freedom of speech and peaceable assembly), integrate nudity with your message. Some ACLU examples include: 'this naked body burns calories not oil', "nude not lewd", "no concealed WMDs', "stripped of our rights", "naked is how vulnerable I feel sharing the roads with cars'...
- No photographs allowed at gathering location except by preauthorized personnel.
- 12. To relieve overcrowding if you do not require body-paint please go from check-in to a nearby pub/diner such as Twisted Spoke (501 N Ogden), Cobra Lounge (235 N Ashland), Sip Coffee (1223 W Grand), etc., then join us at gathering immediately before departure BY 8:45pm.
- For more information see http://worldnakedbikeride.org/chicago

WNBR-C 2007 RIDE GUIDELINES

- YOU MUST completely read this note and bring it with you along with your bike or skates for admission to the pre-ride gathering.
- ABSOLUTELY DO NOT arrive naked or be anywhere near the park naked.
- ABSOLUTELY DO NOT carry open alcohol.
- 4. DO NOT leave litter in park or gathering location.
- Exposed genitals or female nipples may make you a target for arrest. Do so at your own risk, and not until ride is underway.
 Even naked butts may be risky. Remain minimally covered or body painted at all times.
- 6. Obey traffic laws such as signals, signs, and lanes.
- If confronted by police OBEY COMMANDS! COMPLY! DO NOT ESCALATE! DO NOT ARGUE. Say "Yes Officer". If told to put something on, simply do so immediately!
- This ride is monitored by National Lawyers Guild volunteers who can serve as witnesses in case of police engagement. In case of arrest immediately call the NLG office at 312-913-0039
- Remember the purpose of the ride: To Promote Freedom from oil dependency and promote positive body image. Not to antagonize residents and authorities.
- 10. For maximum First Amendment protection (freedom of speech and peaceable assembly), integrate nudity with your message. Some ACLU examples include: 'this naked body burns calories not oil", "nude not lewd", "no concealed WMDs", "stripped of our rights", "naked is how vulnerable I feel sharing the roads with cars", ...
- No photographs allowed at gathering location except by preauthorized personnel.
- 12. To relieve overcrowding if you do not require body-paint please go from check-in to a nearby publidiner such as Twisted Spoke (501 N Ogden), Cobra Lounge (235 N Ashland), Sip Coffee (1223 W Grand), etc., then join us at gathering immediately before departure BY 8:45pm.
- 13. For more information see http://worldnakedbikeride.org/chicago

WNBR-C 2007 RIDE GUIDELINES

- YOU MUST completely read this note and bring it with you along with your bike or skates for admission to the pre-ride gathering.
- ABSOLUTELY DO NOT arrive naked or be anywhere near the park naked.
- ABSOLUTELY DO NOT carry open alcohol.
- 4. DO NOT leave litter in park or gathering location.
- Exposed genitals or female nipples may make you a target for arrest. Do so at your own risk, and not until ride is underway.
 Even naked butts may be risky. Remain minimally covered or body painted at all times.
- 6. Obey traffic laws such as signals, signs, and lanes.
- If confronted by police OBEY COMMANDS! COMPLY! DO NOT ESCALATE! DO NOT ARGUE. Say "Yes Officer". If told to put something on, simply do so immediately!
- This ride is monitored by National Lawyers Guild volunteers who can serve as witnesses in case of police engagement. In case of arrest immediately call the NLG office at 312-913-0039
- Remember the purpose of the ride: To Promote Freedom from oil dependency and promote positive body image. Not to antagonize residents and authorities.
- 10. For maximum First Amendment protection (freedom of speech and peaceable assembly), integrate nudity with your message. Some ACLU examples include: "this naked body burns calories not oil", "nude not lewd", "no concealed WMD's", "stripped of our rights", "naked is how vulnerable I feel sharing the roads with cars", ...
- No photographs allowed at gathering location except by preauthorized personnel.
- 12. To relieve overcrowding if you do not require body-paint please go from check-in to a nearby pub/diner such as Twisted Spoke (501 N Ogden), Cobra Lounge (235 N Ashland), Sip Coffee (1223 W Grand), etc., then join us at gathering immediately before departure BY 8:45pm.
- For more information see http://worldnakedbikeride.org/chicago

WNBR-C 2007 RIDE GUIDELINES

- YOU MUST completely read this note and bring it with you along with your bike or skates for admission to the pre-ride gathering.
- ABSOLUTELY DO NOT arrive naked or be anywhere near the park naked.
- ABSOLUTELY DO NOT carry open alcohol.
- 4. DO NOT leave litter in park or gathering location.
- Exposed genitals or female nipples may make you a target for arrest. Do so at your own risk, and not until ride is underway.
 Even naked butts may be risky. Remain minimally covered or body painted at all times.
- 6. Obey traffic laws such as signals, signs, and lanes.
- If confronted by police OBEY COMMANDS! COMPLY! DO NOT ESCALATE! DO NOT ARGUE. Say "Yes Officer". If told to put something on, simply do so immediately!
- This ride is monitored by National Lawyers Guild volunteers who can serve as witnesses in case of police engagement. In case of arrest immediately call the NLG office at 312-913-0039
- Remember the purpose of the ride: To Promote Freedom from oil dependency and promote positive body image. Not to antagonize residents and authorities.
- 10. For maximum First Amendment protection (freedom of speech and peaceable assembly), integrate nudity with your message. Some ACLU examples include: "this naked body burns calories not oil", "nude not lewd", "no concealed WMDs", "stripped of our rights", "naked is how vulnerable I feel sharing the roads with cars", ...
- No photographs allowed at gathering location except by preauthorized personnel.
- 12. To relieve overcrowding if you do not require body-paint please go from check-in to a nearby pub/diner such as Twisted Spoke (501 N Ogden), Cobra Lounge (235 N Ashland), Sip Coffee (1223 W Grand), etc., then join us at gathering immediately before departure BY 8:45pm.
- 13. For more information see http://worldnakedbikeride.org/chicago

WNBR-C 2007 RIDE GUIDELINES

- YOU MUST completely read this note and bring it with you along with your bike or skates for admission to the pre-ride gathering.
- ABSOLUTELY DO NOT arrive naked or be anywhere near the park naked.
- 3. ABSOLUTELY DO NOT carry open alcohol.
- 4. DO NOT leave litter in park or gathering location.
- Exposed genitals or female nipples may make you a target for arrest. Do so at your own risk, and not until ride is underway. Even naked butts may be risky. Remain minimally covered or body painted at all times.
- 6. Obey traffic laws such as signals, signs, and lanes.
- If confronted by police OBEY COMMANDS! COMPLY! DO NOT ESCALATE! DO NOT ARGUE. Say "Yes Officer". If told to put something on, simply do so immediately!
- This ride is monitored by National Lawyers Guild volunteers who can serve as witnesses in case of police engagement. In case of arrest immediately call the NLG office at 312-913-0039
- Remember the purpose of the ride: To Promote Freedom from oil dependency and promote positive body image. Not to antagonize residents and authorities.
- 10. For maximum First Amendment protection (freedom of speech and peaceable assembly), integrate nudity with your message. Some ACLU examples include: "this naked body burns calories not oil", "nude not lewd", "no concealed WMDs", "stripped of our rights", "naked is how vulnerable I feel sharing the roads with cars"...
- No photographs allowed at gathering location except by preauthorized personnel.
- 12. To relieve overcrowding if you do not require body-paint please go from check-in to a nearby pub/diner such as Twisted Spoke (501 N Ogden), Cobra Lounge (235 N Ashland), Sip Coffee (1223 W Grand), etc., then join us at gathering immediately before departure BY 8:45pm.
- For more information see http://worldnakedbikeride.org/chicago

WNBR-C 2007 RIDE GUIDELINES

- YOU MUST completely read this note and bring it with you along with your bike or skates for admission to the pre-ride gathering.
- ABSOLUTELY DO NOT arrive naked or be anywhere near the park naked.
- ABSOLUTELY DO NOT carry open alcohol.
- 4. DO NOT leave litter in park or gathering location.
- Exposed genitals or female nipples may make you a target for arrest. Do so at your own risk, and not until ride is underway.
 Even naked butts may be risky. Remain minimally covered or body painted at all times.
- 6. Obey traffic laws such as signals, signs, and lanes.
- If confronted by police OBEY COMMANDSI COMPLY! DO NOT ESCALATE! DO NOT ARGUE. Say "Yes Officer". If told to put something on, simply do so immediately!
- This ride is monitored by National Lawyers Guild volunteers who can serve as witnesses in case of police engagement. In case of arrest immediately call the NLG office at 312-913-0039
- Remember the purpose of the ride: To Promote Freedom from oil dependency and promote positive body image. Not to antagonize residents and authorities.
- 10. For maximum First Amendment protection (freedom of speech and peaceable assembly), integrate nudity with your message. Some ACLU examples include: "this naked body burns calories not oil", "nude not lewd", "no concealed WMDs", "stripped of our rights", "naked is how vulnerable I feel sharing the roads with cars", ...
- No photographs allowed at gathering location except by preauthorized personnel.
- 12. To relieve overcrowding if you do not require body-paint please go from check-in to a nearby pub/diner such as Twisted Spoke (501 N Ogden), Cobra Lounge (235 N Ashland), Sip Coffee (1223 W Grand), etc., then join us at qathering immediately before departure BY 8:45pm.
- 13. For more information see http://worldnakedbikeride.org/chicago

WNBR-C 2007 RIDE GUIDELINES

- YOU MUST completely read this note and bring it with you along with your bike or skates for admission to the pre-ride athering.
- ABSOLUTELY DO NOT arrive naked or be anywhere near the park naked.
- 3. ABSOLUTELY DO NOT carry open alcohol.
- 4. DO NOT leave litter in park or gathering location.
- Exposed genitals or female nipples may make you a target for arrest. Do so at your own risk, and not until ride is underway. Even naked butts may be risky. Remain minimally covered or body painted at all times.
- Obev traffic laws such as signals, signs, and lanes.
- If confronted by police OBEY COMMANDS! COMPLY! DO NOT ESCALATE! DO NOT ARGUE. Say "Yes Officer". If told to put something on, simply do so immediately!
- This ride is monitored by National Lawyers Guild volunteers who can serve as witnesses in case of police engagement. In case of arrest immediately call the NLG office at 312-913-0039
- Remember the purpose of the ride: To Promote Freedom from oil dependency and promote positive body image. Not to antagonize residents and authorities.
- 10. For maximum First Amendment protection (freedom of speech and peaceable assembly), integrate nuclity with your message. Some ACLU examples include: "this naked body burns calories not oil", "nude not lewd", "no concealed WMDs", "stripped of our rights", "naked is how vulnerable I feel sharing the roads with cars".
- No photographs allowed at gathering location except by preauthorized personnel.
- 12. To relieve overcrowding if you do not require body-paint please go from check-in to a nearby pub/diner such as Twisted Spoke (501 N Ogden), Cobra Lounge (235 N Ashland), Sip Coffee (1223 W Grand), etc., then join us at gathering immediately before departure BY 8:45pm.
- For more information see http://worldnakedbikeride.org/chicago